9 vie for Jr. Miss

Nine local high school seniors will compete next Saturday night for the title of Bay-Waveland's Junior Miss under sponsorship of the Bay St. Louis Jaycees.

Six of the entries are students at Bay High School: Karen Crawford, Janet Crow, Linda Dunn, Sandra Filligame, Melva Lake and Nan Nelson.

The three girls from St. Joseph Academy are Ann Gottschalk, Marilyn Piazza and Darcel Russell.

The pageant will get under way at 7 p.m. Dec. 19 in St. Joseph's gymnasium and as a preliminary to America's Junior Miss competition staged annually in Mobile, Ala.

Its goal is to find and reward with scholarships the ideal high school senior girl.

A $200 scholarship will be awarded the local winner, along with a trophy, crown and merchandise. First and second alternates will receive trophies and each girl will be given a silver charm bracelet.

Contestants are judged in five categories. Evaluated before the night of competition are the personal interview which accounts for 35 per cent of the score, and school activities and grades, 15 per cent.

In the pageant, 15 per cent is allocated to the evening gown competition for poise and appearance; 20 per cent to talent and 15 per cent, physical fitness.

Piazza and Favre reign

Charles Piazza, son of Mr. and Mrs. C.J. Piazza, reigned as king while Debbie Favre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Favre, was queen for the 48th annual Flea-Fly football game Sunday afternoon at St. Stanislaus Stadium.

The two young monarchs were crowned at half-time exercises by S.P. Murphy, grand knight of the Peregrine Duc Council, Knights of Columbus, which sponsors the yearly event, and Mrs. Bernard Piazza, president of the KC auxiliary.

Maid of honor in the court was Debbie Bermond, escorted by Mike Goodsell.

Other dukes in the court and their maids were Chip Blanchard with Cynthia Wolfe, Wade Koenen with Cheryl Wilcox, Herman Johnson, Jr., with Margaret Bacon, Scott Vogt with Nancy Evans, and Ronald Kester with Doree Dear.

Four KC auxiliary members, Mrs. Tony Comptre, Mrs. Ivan Bradford, Mrs. Joseph Ghiniche and Miss Laura Piazza, entertained as Beales while a group of young girls in the stands were their admirers. Bay Police Chief Lathon Gariga and Officer Jimmy Favre joined in the merriment as lawmen trying to control the antics of the Beale fans.

Gainesville museum unit is organized

Roy Baxter, Jr., of Pearlington has been chosen chairman of the newly organized Gainesville Museum Committee being established under auspices of NASA's Mississippi Test Operations to preserve historical data in the area it is taking over.

At its first meeting Wednesday the group named Grady Thigpen of Piquette as first vice president, Roland Weston of Waveland as second vice president and Mrs. Fred Wagner of Bay St. Louis, secretary.

W.C. Maury, of the MTO public affairs office will serve as coordinator. Capt. William Flinn, MTO manager, met with the committee in the old Logtown Postoffice building which has been moved to the Gainesville area of the test site to serve as a museum.

Walter James Phillips, attorney for Hancock County School board, was instructed Monday to prepare the legal documents necessary for another school construction bond issue vote but to leave the amount sought blank until after the board's next meeting on Dec. 19.

Various remarks of school board members indicated a bond issue of between $225,000 and $250,000 will be sought. On May 2 voters failed by 54 votes to approve a $375,000 bond program. The modified plan resulted from consultation between Phillips, Architect Fred Wagner and Hancock County Superintendent of Education T.H. Naylor, director, State Educational Finance Commission.

Wagner estimated actual cost of construction of minimum construction state authorities would approve at $199,000 exclusive of fees, advertising expenses, equipment, etc. This minimum would provide Gulfview School with six new classrooms and a new cafeteria and kitchen at a cost of $144,000. Two more classrooms would up this cost to $162,000.

Hancock North Central would get the earlier proposed locker and dressing room facilities less storage space, coaches office, etc., and bus repair facility and a 2,000 square foot increase over earlier plans in teaching space for industrial arts. Construction expenses for this enlargement Wagner estimated at a minimum of $55,000.

In addition to these two enlargement programs a new six classroom school at Pearlport is planned. This school would have a cafeteria and necessary equipment but no gymnasium with a cost estimate of $182,000 or $130,000 if eight classrooms are built. It is hoped to pay for this construction from bond funds the United States must pay for construction of the school at Logtown as a result of NASA's Mississippi Test Operations.

Hancock North Central Superintendent J.D. Patton reported to the board on the refinishing of the floor of the school's gym and said he thought a "good job" was done. He did expect, however, to add another coat of varnish to the floor during the Christmas holidays.

Including a $600 bill for labor, approved by the board, cost of the refinishing was estimated by Patton at about $900 compared to the $3,000 plus low bid on the job.

The board assured Mrs. Henry Shubert she would be given first consideration for operation of a school bus route if an operator vacancy occurs. (Cont. on Page 5-A.)

Fleas nip Flies

The Fleas edged the Flies 24-20 Sunday afternoon in St. Stanislaus Stadium to take the 48th annual playing of the grammar grade football classic.

The Fleas had trailed through the first three quarters of the eight-period grid battle, but pulled out from late and held on until the final whistle.

The opening rounds saw no score as two teams of 40-50 pounders whacked it out in a defensive battle near the end field strips. Then the 60-70 pound teams went in to break the scoring line. After an exchange of fumbles and pass interceptions, Jimmy Ryan broke loose in the first half to make the first touchdown for the Fleas. Danny Wake's running conversion put them ahead 7-0 in the half.

There was plenty of action in the fifth and sixth periods as 60-70 pounders squared off. Jimmy Craig made a 20-yard pass to give the second TD to the Fleas and then ran one himself for his own score. The 60-70 pounders, until then, were the teams went in to break the County, city talk

The board of supervisors is slated to confer this Monday with Bay St. Louis officials in an effort to work out some formula for billing the city for feeding its prisoners, who are lodged in Hancock County jail.

Supervisors, with an eye on a shrinking general fund, had ordered Sheriff Sylvan Lader to bill Bay St. Louis and Waveland for their prisoners some months ago but the sheriff's last Monday a decision reached on handling misdeemeanors and families. Of the month's 105 prisoners, 12 are Bay cases.

Because of the drain on the general fund the board declined to advertise for purchase at this time an adding machine the sheriff requested for his tax collection staff, asking him to continue leasing the equipment for the time being.

Hawks seek repeat win at Gulfport

Hancock North Central's variety five opens defense of its Gulfport Invitational Tournament crown won last year when it meets the winner of the "Old Dame-D'it"ville are tonight after opening its last three regularly scheduled contests.

The Hawks lost 43-38 Tuesday night at home to Gulfport High after leading 31 to 18 at the half. Wendell Ladner led the way with 22 points and Kenny Randall added 12. Gulfport's B team also won, 49-28.

A trip to northwest Florida last weekend provided some good experience for this year's squad. Coach Roland Ladner reported, although the HNC boys were defeated 73-40 by Pensacola High and edged 72-69 by William Tate High. Ladner said the Pensacola squad was made up of virtually the same boys who won the Florida championship last season and since none played, football had been practicing since school opened.

Wendell Ladner starred in both road games, tossing in 18 points at Pensacola and 30 at Tate. Eddie Peterson was running with 10 and 15 points. The players, managers Thomas Dobbs and Eric Larsen and the coach made the trip.

DRINK REHEARSAL - Philo Adams, right, director for White Sheep of the Family, gives final pointers to three players today at 8:15. Final game is scheduled for Tuesday. Players include Barbara Nasser, Charles Carter, Jr., Marsha Adams, Dan Hurley and John Stern.

James Jones, a former member of the Peoples Temple, said that he had been told by the late Jim Jones that the group had been planning to move to Guyana for some time. Jones said that he had been told that the group had been planning to move to Guyana for some time. Jones said that he had been told that the group had been planning to move to Guyana for some time.

Frederick, sophomore, and James Hays, senior, were the most handsome boys. They are Harry Ann, senior, and Clemon Lamar, sophomore. Jimmy Smith and Knight, sophomores, Ann Marie and John Smith, juniors. In last week's report of the HHS, who's who of the Glende Shyous as the most athletic girl, the most beautiful, Arlis Lee and Joyce Smith, as the most popular and Margaret Ferguson and Brenda Lee as the most popular boys.

A new fire engine, red, certainly has been long for the municipality stage to replace the old green one.

Get well wishes to Linda Richards who has been in the Plymouth hospital. Deepest sympathy goes to the family of Gladys Pavre Nease. Her brother, Larry, is a senior at I.H.C.

Congratulations for to Bay High seniors who got their class rings last week.

Coach and Mrs. Roland Lacher have chosen Melinda Kaye as the name for their new daughter. This is their third child. They have a son and another daughter.

Coach Enell Lee is much better after having a minor eye operation last week.

The science club at HNC is made up of those students with serious minds, according to Homer Williams, club sponsor. It meets weekly and from time to time members report in the field of their interest. Sometimes a demonstration is performed, either by the members or by Mr. Williams for the future. It is hoped that some will want to develop projects in the wide and interesting fields. President of the club is Doyle Smith, vice president is Lanny Baker, secretary is Linda Stewart.

The young Tigers were having a hard time getting started in the first game of the season. They were held to a 1-0 record in the first game, but they won the second game by 11 points at halftime. Leading scorer for the Tigers was David Campbell with eight points, and Anthony Leiner and Perry Stephens with six each. Pace High's Fernan Pineda had 15 points.

In the varsity girls game the Lady Pirates scattered the Tigers 47-35. Susan Farnham led scoring with 20 points for Pace Christian, and Melba Lake contributed 16 for the Todd boys Jones.

Valerie C. Jones lost a pair of cage battles to Todd Memorial High at Poplarville Tuesday night.

Todd girls surprised the VJL Tigers with a slowdown tactics that Coach Willie Bradley's players never managed to solve, but the game had to go into overtime before Poplarville took it, 23-19. The VJL boys lost a heartbreaker, 51-57.

Amie Haynes led Jones' girls with seven points, while four VJL boys broke into the two-figure bracket: Robert Whavers, 19; Thaddeus Williams, 12; and Alexander Acher and Larry Peters, 10 each.

Mrs. A Necaise

Final rites were Wednesday morning in Hampton, Va., for Mrs. Alvin Necaise, about 40, the former Gladys Farrow of Kila, who died about midnight Sunday at her home there after being wounded in a shooting accident.

Daughter of the late Jones and Joseph Farrow, she was a native of Hancock County and a graduate of Kila High School.

Besides her husband, she leaves a son, Charles, five sisters, Mrs. Edward Clark of Dulles, Miss LeVerna Farrow of Mathez, Mrs. Elaine Bonner of Youngstown, O.; Mrs. Marilyn Farrow of San Francisco, Calif., and Mrs. Rita Hantley; and six brothers, Alton, Thomas and Douglas Farrow, all of Hampton, Marion Farrow of Arlington, Va., and Anthony and Larry Farrow, both of Kila.

ordained to the diaconate Rev. Frater Gerhard Vogel of Riegelberg-Saar, Germany, and Rev. Frater John Wynn of Miami, Fla., in chapel of St. Augustine Seminary Nov. 30. Also ordained at the service were Rev. Frater Borgia Aubespia of Opelousas, La., and Rev. Frater Charles Boykins of Alexandria, La. Three other seminarians received the minor orders of exorcist and acolyte.

Host tourney this weekend
Jones cagers top Lucedale in pair
Both boys and girls from Valena C. Jones School rolled over the cage teams from Oak Grove High of Lucedale Friday night to stage a double-barrel victory for coach Willie Bradley. In the opener the Jones Tigerettes downed the Lucedale Bearkittens a smashing 45-25, and the Tigers trampled the boy Bearcats 72-57.
VCJ's top-scoring girls were Marilyn Price, 18 points; Ann Mitchell, 14; and Annie Haynes, 10. Lucedale was led by Barbara Ward who basketed 13. The Tigerette defenses which held the Oak Grove girl to the 20-point trailer were sparked by Dessye Price, Lornella Young, and Gladys Mullins.
In the second event, five Jones cagers scored in the

Miss Seuzemann and fiance set wedding plans

Miss Cheryl Denise Seuzemann and her fiance, Gerald Seuzemann, III, have set their wedding date for Dec. 19, at the date for the wedding which will be solemnized at a capital mass at 11 a.m. at Our Lady of the Gulf Church.

The bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Gerald Seuzemann, will entertain afterwards with a reception at Bay-Waveland Yacht Club.

Miss Mary Beth Lathier will be Miss Seuzemann's maid of honor and the bridesmaids will be Misses Allison Trelles and Patricia Ballais.

Mr. Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy, Jr., of Waveland, will have his father as best man. Groomsmen will be his brother, Basil Kennedy, and his uncle, Kenneth Kennedy of New Orleans. Ushering will be Malcolm G. Seuzemann, Jr., brother of the bride-elect, and Norvin Penrose, Jr.

The groom-elect's parents will be hosts at a buffet supper next Friday evening at their home on Jeff Davis Avenue following the wedding rehearsal.

Mrs. Charles Matthews and Mrs. C. Dudley Andry entertained Saturday, Nov. 28, at the Matthews home in New Orleans with a kitchen shower in compliment to Miss Seuzemann.

For Fifty Years

Hancock Bank has promoted the Christmas Savings Club idea since 1914. This is its Fiftieth Anniversary. The bank's friends like the club idea, so for fifty years they have joined up annually.

And for a longer period people have asked "Is there a Santa Claus?" Not only Virginia, but everybody knows now there is a Santa Claus. Wherever there is a home, a bread earner and provider, there must be a Santa Claus.

And no agency of our generation has done more to see that Santa Claus comes to every hearthstone and fills every stocking than the Christmas Savings Club.

Christmas Savings Clubs have given millions of earners and givers the incentive to get something in savings each week, that Christmas, when it comes, will find Santa Claus neither heavy-hearted nor empty-handed but with a fat purse.

So as usual, Hancock Bank has seven clubs available for 1965 Christmas Savings. You may join a $12.50, $25.00, $50.00, $100.00, $150.00, $200.00 or $500.00 club.

and save a given amount each week. You may deposit the amounts weekly or authorize the bank transfer monthly deductions from your checking account for ten months, beginning January, 1965.

Saving for Christmas by installments is the way for you to be absolutely sure that Santa Claus visit your home come Christmas 1965.

On this the Fiftieth Anniversary of Hancock Bank participation in the Christmas Savings Club we invite you to join our 1965 Christmas Savings Club. Join at Bay Saint Louis, Gulfport, Pass Christian, Long Beach, Long Beach, Pass Christian, or at the Gulfport Mississippi Test (NASA) in Hancock County.

And in the Spirit of the Season, our officers, directors, stockholders and employees wish for you and yours Peace, Prosperity and Happiness. May you and yours have the good things of life in rich abundance, and Hancock Bank be so fortunate as to merit your trusted care well through the years to come.
